Biography

Tony McBrayer was born in Tifton, Ga. and graduated with honors from Tift County High School. He attended ABAC and Valdosta State University earning a bachelor's degree in accounting. Tony founded and operates TMM Enterprises, Inc., a wholesale specialty grocery distributor. In 1997, TMM Enterprises was selected as Mission Foods' Distributor of the Year. Rep. McBrayer is also a Certified Financial Coach through Dave Ramsey's Lampo Group, and he teaches families how to get their financial house in order. Tony is a fiscal conservative and believes that government should live within its means just like our families and businesses must do. Tony is a volunteer with American Red Cross, graduated from the Leadership Tifton Program, and is an active member of the Tifton-Tift County Chamber of Commerce. He also serves on the Tift County Planning and Zoning Board of Appeals, and is a member of the Georgia Food Industry Association.

Tony is married to the love of his life, Diane, and they have two sons, Ryan and Shane. They are active members of Pineview Holiness Baptist Church in Tifton where Tony serves as Adult Sunday School teacher, choir director and treasurer. Tony is also Chairman of the Board of Trustees for the Holiness Baptist Association. In the past, he has also served on the Campground Committee and as Youth Director and General Superintendent of the association. Tony is also a past President of the Tifton Gideons, and he thoroughly enjoyed church mission trips to the countries of Mexico and Panama.
